Welcome to Our Beautiful Garden and Memorial Bench

We would like to welcome everyone to this beautiful garden and memorial bench.
We would also like to extend our heartfelt thanks to Fr. Joseph and Deacon Klug for giving this special place God's blessings.
I can't think of a better gift than having a peaceful place to sit with God, gather your thoughts, and enjoy the beauty of His surroundings.
Please come and enjoy the warmth of the afternoon sun or the cool, peaceful mornings as the earth awakens to a new day.
There is something so special about sitting in the quiet of the morning with a nice cup of coffee, taking in the beauty of God's creation, and finding peace in the moment.
Although our loved ones are gone, they will never be forgotten.
May this garden and memorial bench be a place where we can remember them, reflect on the beautiful memories we shared, and find comfort and peace in knowing they will always live on in our hearts.
May God bless this beautiful place and all who come to enjoy it.

The Rosary is prayed before Mass by: Donna Peter

For the Month of October the Rosary will besaid after mass. With one exception which will be Oct. 11th the Rosary will be said before Mass.

The Thirtieth Sunday of Ordinary Time:
My friends, as people called to practice the one commandment of love, let us call to mind a few of the more serious situations when we hurt someone by refusing to look at a situation from their point of view. The Law of Moses presented ideals of care, consideration, and hospitality to the people of Israel. Christ confirmed this. He summed up the whole Law for us in his great commandment.
Let us pray that the Mass will help us want to love those people in our lives whom we feel we have a right not to love.
A Family Perspective:
In today's Gospel, the Pharisee was talking about commandments (Something we are forced to obey by external pressure) and Jesus was talking about (an internal exhortation to give our hearts, soul and mind to another). One demands allegiance, the other requires personal commitment. In our families, we daily lay down our lives for each other not because we "gotta" but because love compels us. -Buz Ozar
